

SAFETY ALERT

USAREUR Provost Marshal

Dense Fog / Light Rain - Driving Too Fast For Conditions!

Suspected Causal Factors

- Speed - Too fast for conditions.
- Environmental - Wet, slippery road surfaces, and dense fog.

•
O
in al

Two soldiers were traveling northbound on B-19, near the city of Wuerzburg. While attempting to pass two cars, the driver apparently lost control of the vehicle. After losing control, the vehicle spun 180 degrees and crossed into oncoming traffic striking another vehicle. The ensuing impact caused fatal injuries to one of the soldiers, and a German National in the other vehicle. The other soldier and the passenger in the other vehicle sustained major injuries. It is the vehicle driven by the leading.

Lessons Learned

- ✓ Obey speed limits!
- ✓ Adjust driving to conditions!
- ✓ Exercise self discipline and good judgment!